EDITORIAL: 2 big infra projects

Two major infrastructure projects of late have received the clearance from authorities to proceed. They are among the big "Build, Build, Build" projects lined up under the administration of President Rodrigo Duterte in support of the government's bid to boost the economy.

The $3.5-b subway project in the Makati financial district aims to connect key points in the city and significantly cut the travel time of thousands of workers in the urban center. As proposed, the subway will link the central business district from the corner of Ayala Ave. and Sen. Gil Puyat Ave. to Circuit City, Makati City Hall, University of Makati, Ospital ng Makati, and other new growth areas within the city. Once completed, the subway will serve over 700,000 passengers daily.

The subway rail mode clearly addresses the physical limit of Makati's road network. It will significantly reduce the number of buses, cars, jeepneys and taxicabs plying the narrow streets of Makati, as commuters gravitate toward the convenience of using the subway rail.

The Department of Transportation, meanwhile, is set to award the P735-billion New Manila International Airport project in Bulacan province to San Miguel Corp. in the absence of rival bidders. Construction of the ambitious airport in Bulacan town, Bulacan province could start early next year after the groundbreaking ceremony in the fourth quarter this year.

The alternative airport will decongest air traffic in the Ninoy Aquino International Airport, which has long exceeded its passenger capacity amid the tourism boom.

The new airport, more importantly, will decongest Metro Manila as airline passengers take a different route, away from the busy thoroughfares of Metro Manila. The project involves the construction, operation and maintenance of an international airport and building an 8.4-kilometer tollway that will connect the New Manila International Airport to North Luzon Expressway in Marilao, Bulacan.

With a design capacity of 100-million passengers annually and four parallel runways, the modern NMIA is a much better alternative than Naia.

Modern infrastructure projects such as the NMIA and the Makati subway rail should receive full government support in terms of fiscal incentives. These modern facilities will reshape the landscape of the metropolis and its outskirts, and eventually modernize the economy.

Gov't earns P142.6-M in 21 months from Mile Long property

The government has so far earned P142.6 million from the 2.2 hectare Mile Long property in Makati City since it took over the management of this state-owned prime real estate in August 2017, according to the Department of Finance (DOF).

Gerard Chan, the Chief Privatization Officer of the DOF-attached Privatization Management Office (PMO) said the government's net earnings of P142 million in rental fees over a 21-month period for the Mile Long Property represents an average profit of around P6.7 million per month.

In contrast, the government was able to collect nothing in rental fees from this prime Makati lot's former lessee, Sunvar Realty Development Corp., for 14 years prior to PMO's takeover in 2017 owing to the then-pending legal case over the property.

In a report to Finance Secretary Carlos Dominguez III, Chan said that since the government took over the management of the property from Sunvar in August 2017, the government has earned a gross income of P185 million in rental fees.

Deducting expenses totaling P42.46 million over the August 2017 to June 2019 period, yields a net income of P142.6 million.

"That's roughly (an income of) P7 million a month from zero," Dominguez said upon hearing Chan's report during a recent DOF Executive Committee (Execom) meeting.

Dominguez was referring to the 14-year period when the government was earning nothing from the Mile Long property because the government was embroiled in a legal battle with Sunvar, which refused to vacate the property even after its lease contract had expired in 2002.

Chan said that as of June 2019, 128 establishments are now occupying 219 of the 309 available units in Mile Long, representing a 71 percent occupancy rate.

The government also earns from leasing out the three parking areas in the property, Chan added.

Duterte's 4th SONA comprehensive, sets legislative agenda for new Congress

President Rodrigo Duterte's fourth State of the Nation Address (SONA) was "quite comprehensive and sets the direction for the 18th Congress' legislative agenda," Senator Win Gatchalian said.

"The message is very clear to the legislators that the President wants to pass the remaining legislation that has not been passed in the past three years," Gatchalian said.

"These are very difficult pieces of legislations and it demands a lot of debate and a lot of study and the President feels that these pieces of legislation are essential for him to perform his mandate," he added.

Gatchalian said he was pleased that the President, in particular, touched on corruption, the West Philippine Sea, agriculture, and poverty in his speech.

He stressed that

Duterte's fourth SONA was also a very clear message that President is very serious in eradicating corruption in government.

"The message is very clear that the President is going to be tough on corruption because he feels, and I also agree with the President, that corruption is also connected to drugs, poor services, and poverty," Gatchalian said.

"Corruption the root cause of many ills of our society," he stressed.

Moreover, the lawmaker said the President was also very clear that he wants to take the diplomatic route in dealing with West Philippine Sea (WPS) issue.

"This is a balancing act and the statement of the President is quite strong – this is the strongest statement that I have heard from him in the last three years," he said. "The strategy and the route are very clear that he wants to take the diplomatic route and he wants to balance it and at one point assert it heavily."

"For me, what is quite satisfying personally, is his assertion that WPS is ours, no ifs, no buts," he added.

In terms of poverty, the Gatchalian said the President touched on some of the government's anti-poverty programs, especially on agriculture.

He lauded Duterte for ordering the Landbank of the Philippines to "focus on its core mandate, which is to lend out to the agriculture sector."

"These are a few strategies that the administration will employ to jumpstart agriculture because it has been a laggard for the last six years," Gatchalian said. "Of course, we want to see more details because it is a complex industry but refocusing Landbank to lend more is a very good start because access to capital for our farmers has been a big problem."

In his speech, Duterte lamented that LBP was "marred in so many commercial transactions" despite its mandate to help farmers. He threatened to shut down the state-run bank if it could not fulfill its mandate.

HEALTHCARE FOR CONCHU RESIDENTS: The provincial government of Cavite thru the opg-extension and the provincial health office brought free healthcare services to the residents of Barangay Conchu in Trece Martires City on July 23 2019. Seventh District Board Members Ping Remulla and Lito Langit, together with Mayor Gemma Lubigan, Vice Mayor Bobby Montehermoso, and the members of the city councils were present as they roamed around the vicinity and interacted with the locals. Volunteer doctors, dentists and medical practitioners from general Emilio Aguinaldo Memorial Hospital rendered free consultations and tooth extraction to 501 patients. The event was made possible with the assistance from Barangay Chairwoman Irene Aure with the help of the barangay health workers and the employees of the local and provincial government. PETITION

Petitioner, through counsel alleges That:

- Petitioner is of legal age, Filipino citizen, married to respondent and a resident of Block 3, Lot 9 ACM Homes, Anabu II-B, Imus City, Cavite, since January 2009 up to the present where he may be served with summons and other processes of this Honorable Court. A photocopy of his "Certification of Residency" of Barangay Anabu II-B, is hereto attached as Annex "A."
- Respondent is of legal age, Filipino citizen, married to petitioner and a resident of Barangay Pinamasagan, San Fernando, Camarines Sur c/o Efren Bermundo Baraquiel, where she may be served with summons and other processes of this Honorable Court.
- Sometime in 1993, petitioner met respondent who was introduced to him by his spiritual brother (compadre) at the latter's house in Naga city, Camarines Sur.
- From then on,, petitioner courted respondent by frequenting her at the boarding house at Penafancia Ave., Naga City, Camarines Sur, being then a student in BSBA Major in Marketing at the University of Nueva Caceres.
- After two (2) weeks of courting, respondent answered petitioner with a "sweet yes" and became sweethearts. At that time petitioner was to embark on an overseas ocean going vessel as a seafarer.

6. After one (1) year of engagement, petitioner on board the vessel called upon respondent five (5) times , not in succession, and proposed marriage with her for which respondent accepted and obliged.

7. On petitioner return for vacation, he and his parents arranged the wedding with respondent's parents. Petitioner's parents were at first against respondent as their son's life partner to be, for reason of their own, but succumbed to their understanding that their son was not getting any younger who was almost at late twenties.

8. The date of their wedding is agreed upon. Respondent had to secure her parent's consent and advice for her marriage which they gave as she would only by twenty (20) years old at the time. It was on April 27, 1996 that their marriage was solemnized at San Fernando, Camarines Sur, as evidenced by a photocopy of their "Certificate of Marriage" hereto attached as Annex "B" and its Official Receipt of Payment from the Philippine Statistics Authority as Annex "C."

9. Right before the solemnization of their marriage, in respondent's house, she sowed upward a lump of sand in front of petitioner's face saying: drivers are better than petitioner who knows how to arrange well in every endeavor. Petitioner did not mind this trivial matter to him as he loved respondent.

10. After the wedding, petitioner and respondent lived first in the house of petitioner's parents with extended family until the delivery of their first born son FRANCIS RYAN BARAQUIEL DASAL, a photocopy of his "Certificate of Live Birth" is hereto attached as Annex "D" and its Official Receipt of payment from the Philippine Statistics Authority as Annex "E."

11. A petitioner parent's house, respondent showed her disrespect to petitioner's parents and grandmother. One time, she slid a glass of water towards his grandmother washing the dishes spilling out water hitting his grandmother's face. Respondent even uttered to his father's face "walang sir, sir sa akin." Respondent had no respect even to her parents, answering harshly to them making her mother cry.

12. Thereafter, petitioner and respondent lived in a rented apartment of Penafancia Ave., Naga City, Camarines Sur where their second son JOHN ROBERT BARAQUIEL DASAL was born, as evidenced by a photocopy of his "Certificate of Live Birth" hereto attached as Annex "F" and its Official Receipt of payment from the Philippine Statistics Authority as Annex "G."

13. Petitioner, while on board the vessel as seafarer, had been leaving behind his family at their rented apartment while religiously maintaining his duties and responsibilities towards his family until they decided to buy on installments of their family house at Villa Carangahan Subd., Calauag, Naga City, Camarines Sur, and finally lived there for about three (3) years.

14. Sometime in 2002 in the family house, a person named "Bong" who is Jose Bernaz Briz Jr., visited them and was introduced to petitioner by respondent as her uncle who used to conduct the fetch their children to and from school. It was his first time to see "Bong" during his son John Robert's birthday.

15. Everytime respondent opened her mouth to articulate someone, she would always name "Bong", her alleged uncle in whom she had a high regard and as so close to her than her other uncles for which the petitioner got jealous.

16. One time, petitioner went to Manila to undergo training as a seafarer. He stayed for two (2) months in his brother's house until his scheduled departure. He was so surprised why respondent did not follow him to bid goodbye which she always do.

17. After his departure and for a long while, petitioner and respondent experienced financial problem. Despite respondent's monthly allotment from petitioner and holder of his ATM Card where his salaries were remitted, respondent always got short of cash and made complaints of financial deficiency for their school children enrolled in a private school accusing petitioner enjoying himself without concern of the family problems.

18. Respondent bragged to petitioner that only Jose Bernaz Briz Jr., could look after their family financial problem. Before the expiration of his contract for his embarkation, petitioner and respondent had several quarrels as she was demanding money excessively. Thus, petitioner extended his contract and was on board for about eighteen (18) months and at the instance of respondent.

19. It was in this period of eighteen (18) months that respondent got pregnant by Jose Bernaz Briz Jr., and delivered a daughter Coleen in time of respondent's request for an mount from petitioner for the introduction of some fixtures and other improvements needed for their house. A photocopy of the "Certificate of Live Birth" of COLEEN ISABELA BARAQUIEL BRIZ is hereto attached as Annex "H" and its Official Receipt of payment from the Philippine Statistics Authority as Annex "I."

20. Upon petitioner's disembarkation, he was surprised why respondent was not excited, though his sons were, despite a long wait of time. He learned from someone that the money his wife was asking was spent for Jose Bernaz Briz Jr., purchase of scooter and in putting up a sari-sari store.

21. All the properties that petitioner and respondent had founded including jewelries, which the petitioner believes to have been dissipated by respondent, are waived and abandoned by petitioner in favor of respondent.

22. When petitioner confronted respondent what was happening to her, she just answered him to look for his mate because she had already Jose Bernaz Briz Jr., in whom she had given birth to a child named Coleen.

23. Petitioner just hid his jealousy, on respondent's infidelity, lies, insubmissiveness, extravagance and domineering acts. He left her to go to his parent's house and told their sons that he would return to get them but upon his return she had left with her sons to live with her paramour Jose Bernaz Briz Jr.

24. The two (2) sons of the petitioner and respondent who are of legal were once under the care and custody of petitioner after leaving their mother and her paramour who maltreated them and were taken by petitioner's mother who lived under her company and custody now.

25. This long unwanted and unfortunate turn of events, of deliberate or uncontrollable drive of respondent, had made reconciliation of the parties highly mentally and physically impossible. This had brought much anxiety, stress and trepidation upon Petitioner who took refuge in the solace of a new found spiritual love in a woman with whom he has three (3) children.

26. Petitioner has put his life in order and into a clear perspective for the future as he wants to legally terminate his marriage with Respondent and is compelled to file his petition.

27. Petitioner had undergone a battery of psychological tests and clinical interview on a Comprehensive Personality and Behavior Assessment on September 14 and 26, 2017 and October 10 and 25, 2017 at the clinic of Clinic Psychologist Dr. Lara A. Maguad, located at 2nd Floor, PCG Building, Bayanihan Homes, Anabu-2D, Imus City, Cavite. On October 10, 2017, this Clinical Psychologist invited respondent to clarify and give her side of their marital but up to now no response is made.

28. Corroborative interviews were made upon Lydia Gonzales on October 25, 2017, a friend and godmother of petitioner and respondent's eldest son, and Ma. Leonora Theresa D. Morte-ga, on November6, 2017, a younger sister of petitioner.

29. After a battery of psychological assessment, clinical interviews, impressions of their marital history, mental status examination, psychological test and evaluation, and the corroborative informations from significant persons in petitioner's life and that of respondent, Dr. Lara A. Maguad had concluded that Petitioner is found to be suffering from 'psychological incapacity known as "DEPENDENT PERSONALITY DISORDER' while Respondent is found to be suffering from psychological incapacity known as "BORDELIN PERSONALITY DISORDER" enough to incapacitate the parties to comply with the essential marital obligations of their marriage.

30. These psychological incapacities of the petitioner and respondent are Grave, Relative and Incurable due to the fact that the personality disorders they are suffering from are already an integral part of their personality which had already been existing prior to their marriage but made manifest thereafter, more particularly, the root cause of which can be traced to the petitioner and respondent's dysfunctional child rearing experiences and psychological development. Such Incurability may be relative only in regards to the petitioner and respondent as husband and wife, not necessarily absolute against everyone of the same or opposite sex.

31. The condition of the parties is beyond cure. Reconciliation is impossible and totally not healthy as this will only cause continuous suffering to both petitioner and respondent.

32. In view of the Psychological Incapacity of BOTH the Petitioner and Respondent to comply with their marital obligations, which was clinically found to be Grave, Relative and Incurable existing prior to, at the time of the celebration, and during the subsistence of their marriage, their marriage is therefore NULL and VOID under Article 36 of the New Family Code.

5. Petitioner met respondent on 1984 while they were both working at Banco de Oro. Petitioner immediately noticed respondent and started counting her. Unfortunately, she already liked somebody else. She likes somebody else with more stature and money than him.
6. That's in 1988, Petitioner was able to work abroad at Saudi Refrigerator Manufacturing Company. While working abroad communications with the respondent started and before petitioner's first vacation, or December, 1990, respondent answered petitioner's plea for a relationship. Thus they became girlfriend and boyfriend, a long distance relationship.
7. As a girlfriend, became it is a long distance relationship, petitioner only noticed her domineering attitude, her social climbing behavior and clamour for more money. She always wanted to be at her best looks and even told herein petitioner that she does not want any children. Petitioner dismissed this as he thought that respondent was only kidding.
8. That petitioner went back to the Philippines for a vacation late in 1991, when the parties entered into a Marriage on December 11, 1991 at Manila solemnized by the Honorable Judge Benjamin Toingson. Herein attached as Annex "A" is the marriage contract of the parties.

13. Petitioner still loves his wife that he purchased a house at Biñan, Laguna, He had this fully furnished but respondent refuse to leave her parents. That is why respondent resided either at her parents or siblings at Pasay City or Paranaque City.

14. Respondent nags herein petitioner for money. She also sold their house in Biñan, Laguna. Petitioner had no idea where the money from the sale went. But still respondent continuously and without rest nags for money. She is always jealous and would be loud about this with foul words directed against petitioner. She was jealous yet she refused to have sex with petitioner. He has to literally begged and even that does not guaranty that he would be able to have sex with respondent.

15. Every time petitioner went home for vacation with respondent, he always suffered from illness. Food poisoning, lead poisoning and other illnesses. One time, petitioner become so sick but respondent does not want to bring petitioner to the hospital. She would say, sayang ang pera, hindi ka naman nagpapadala ng Malaki. Mas Malaki pa makukuha namin pag hindi ka na gumaling. Lucky for petitioner, his brothers and sisters got worried and went to him and took him to the hospital where he was confined for 15 days.

16. One time, it was in 2006, when herein petitioner went home for vacation, one day, he went to his siblings. Respondent who was still working for BDO, looked for him when she got home. she called petitioner and warned him that if he did not go home to her immediately, he could not live with her anymore. When he got home, he found all of his clothes inside a luggage. Although, he was not kicked out that day, the tear in their relationship grew.

17. He went to his brother in Trece Martirez City, Cavite at that time and where he resides every time he is home in the Philippines ever since then.

18. Respondent kept on her nagging ways about money and her jealousy. She kicked him out of the house. His pleas landed in deaf ears. Yet she always calls for money and support. And he found out that respondent moved to another residence without giving her address.

19. Respondent on the same day, could no longer be found. Petitioner tried to find and talk to the respondent but her family would not tell her whereabouts. Petitioner has not seen respondent and their daughter ever since

20. That if the respondent be examined be a psychologist, she would find that the respondent is psychologically incapacitated to comply with the martial obligation from the very inception of their marriage. Petitioner went to the psychologist but the Psychological Report is not yet ready but the psychologist intimated that the respondent is suffering from psychological incapacity and there is still a possibility that petitioner is also suffering from another form of psychological incapacity.

21. That petitioner and respondent have no conjugal properties.

Hence, the instant Petition under Article 36 of the Family Code in order to relieve and release the parties from a sham and miserable marriage which is valid ab initio due to psychological incapacity of the respondent, Belinda Medenilla or both of them.

Mayor Joselito Naguit, Ms. Lhee Manlapaz, and Architect Jhong Naguit, were present during the said opening.

The people of Kawit and its neighboring towns swarmed the grand opening, taking advantage of the 50% discount until supplies last.

"Eto lang ang magandang kainan sa area na to. Yong iba puro nasa mga malls na." said pa dito, kita mo na sariwa ang mga seafoods. " (It's good, just like in Dampa along Macapagal Boulevard. Its even better because you can really see the seafoods are fresh), stated by another customer.

In an interview with Ms. Raiza David, Funnside Ningnangan has a seating capacity of around 350 to 400. It's perfect for all occasions. The restaurant has a big dining hall. On the side is a mini market where customers can pick the food they want to cook. There is also a grilling station.

Outside the big dining hall are small huts.

They also have an open dining area with a big LED TV for entertainment.

Another branch is expected to open August 10, in Bacoor, Cavite.

So far, Funnside Kawit is their first ever branch in the south. What makes it different from any other Kapampangan Restaurants? This is the only Kapampangan restaurant with a native hut setting and you get to pick up the food you like to have it cooked the Kapampangan way. So, if you are tired of the usual fast food, Funnside Ningnangan is the answer. On top of that, they have the best customer service too.
